Dr Henrik Kühl

Specialist lawyer for construction and architects' law

Henrik advises on private construction law as well as architects' and engineers' law. His clients are public and private clients, architects, engineers, and contractors. His advice covers both contract drafting and legal enforcement during construction and in court. Another focus of his practice is banking and finance law. Dr. Kühl advises on real estate and renewable energy projects, particularly in the review and drafting of sales prospectuses, compliance with and applicability of banking supervisory regulations, and the drafting and negotiation of financing agreements.
